

In Missouri, farmers are beginning to prepare for putting in their fall crops. Butter is 8 cents a pound and eggs 3 to 4 cents a dozen. Good calicoes are 5 cents a yard, and everything else in proportion.

According to official statistics, forty-seven persons died in England and Wales of hydrophobia in 1875, and fifty-three in 1876. The total in eleven years from the beginning of 1866 to the ending of 1876, was 387.

Report comes from Michigan that new wheat is selling for 70 and 80 cents a bushel, while that of the old crop bring as high as one dollar per bushel. Some of the new wheat sprouted during the heavy rains in July. The wheat crop the present season is very good, and the corn crop bids fair to yield abundantly.

Weather is now changed and a lively breeze whistles through the trees like the winds of a Michigan winter.

Butter is 10 cents a pound and eggs are 6 cents a dozen. Beef 7 to 10 cents a pound.

Washington Territory is represented by her Newspapers as anxious to become a State, but her population still falls short of 124,000, the number on which representation in Congress is based.

Small-pox and diphtheria have been very prevalent and fatal lately in London. Since New Year's there have been 1,134 fatal cases of small-pox within fifteen miles of Charing Cross.

Heavy storms are reported in the States of Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New York, Connecticut and Vermont, doing much damage to property and causing considerable loss of life.
